

Mark Rearden joined the Palmetto Tennis Center in June of 2010 as the Head Professional. He comes to us from Augusta, Georgia where he worked for more than 26 years. His most recent position there was as part owner and general manager of the Petersburg Racquet Club for 5 years and previously, 21 years as the Director of Tennis at the West Lake Country Club.

Mark serves as Vice President on the USPTA South Carolina board and on the USTA South Carolina Player Development Committee where he serves as Head Coach for the state's 10s programs.

Mark has a P1 rating with the USPTA and a Professional rating with the PTR. He also has a High Performance junior certification from the USTA. He has coached hundreds of junior players through their tournament years with many going on to play college tennis. He is considered an expert in player development.